Academic Suspension

Date Adopted: 19-21 May 1998

Date Revised: 24 March 2014

Date Reviewed: 10-14 December 2001

References: Action and Directives of the COM-FSM Board of Regents meeting December 2001.

Students who remain on academic probation for two enrolled semesters (not including summer session) are placed on academic suspension. After one semester, a suspended student may apply for readmission.

Readmission is not automatic and will be granted by the Admissions Board or for the open admissions programs by the State Campus Director on probationary status only when there is evidence that the student will perform satisfactorily.
