Date Reviewed: 24 March 2014

References:

Students may apply for credit-by-examination for approved COM-FSM courses which include in the course outline an examination, checklist, or other diagnostic device that measures students' understanding and fulfillment of the course student learning outcomes. The student must be in good academic standing and present evidence of competence in the subject. Students can attempt to challenge a course only once.

Credits for courses earned by examination will be entered on student's permanent record as "credit-by-examination." Credits so earned will not count toward the twelve-semester credit requirement for full-time student classification. No more than a total of sixteen credits may be earned by examination.
