Title: Credit Load and Overload

Date Adopted: 1 April 1993

Date Revised:

Date Reviewed: 24 March 2014, 21 March 2019

References:

Credit load

Student is limited to a maximum load of 18 credits per regular semester, and six credits per summer session. Additional courses can only be taken with permission by the vice president for instructional affairs.

Credit Overload

The credit overload policy requires the vice president for instructional affairs to give prior approval to a student requesting overload (19 or more credits). Overload is given to a student who has a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0.
