I want to take a moment to welcome all of you to a new academic year. Many new students are arriving on campus from Pohnpei, Chuuk, Yap and Kosrae in anticipation of student orientation, the first week of classes and immersion into a year of study, learning and personal growth. The feeling of energy and excitement on campus is palpable.

The President's Retreat has been set for August 24 – 26, 2011 (Wednesday – Friday) at the FSM-China Friendship Sports Center Practice Gym, COM-FSM National Campus. The slight change in date is to accommodate high level participation from the college in the upcoming JEMCO. The Interim President was informed late last week by SBOC and FSM JEMCO members that JEMCO will hold its meeting the last week of August in Honolulu.
