MESSAGE FROM THE SECURITY AND SAFETY SUPERVISOR

On behalf of the Campus Security and Safety Office, I extend our warmest greetings. This brochure exists to provide the community with essential information, such as security related services, programs, policies and statistics pertaining to crime on campus.

The Campus Security and Safety office exists to ensure and maintain policies of the College of Micronesia-FSM. We are required to facilitate a crime free, safe and peaceful environment for our campus and the surrounding community. We orientate ourselves to promoting and assuring that the environment within the community can accommodate the needs of the students, faculty and other employees through safety and prevention practices. Every contact with a student, faculty, staff or visitor, is an opportunity to learn about the responsibilities of living or working in a learning community. All in all, our mission is to provide a safe, conducive to learning and working environment.

We seek your assistance as a member of this community to join in and contribute your support and understanding towards prevention, awareness and safety. In doing so, you are not only helping yourself, but also other members of this community. I encourage you to carefully review this brochure, especially the prevention tips. Personal safety is a responsibility that each and every one of us bears, and we the Campus Security and Safety Office need your assistance to make our campus a safe environment in which to learn, live and grow. If you have any questions, comments, or suggestions about campus security and safety at the College of Micronesia-FSM, please feel free to contact me at 320-7017 or e-mail me at chiefsecurity@comfsm.fm.

Sincerely,

MISSION STATEMENT

Our Mission:

The COM-FSM, Campus Security and Safety strives to:

Provide for a safe and secure environment for students, faculty, staff and visitors.

Our Guiding Principles are:

- We are dedicated to the concepts of high standards, continuous improvement and efficient public relations through prevention and awareness.
- We are proud of our accomplishments and abilities to accommodate to the needs of the community. We are dedicated to seeking appropriate training and equipment to meet our goals and objectives.
- We emphasize mutual respect, cooperation, recognition, and equality within the Campus Security and Safety Office and the community. We thrive to create a working environment through trust, commitment and positive attitude.
- We shall maintain good relations with the community which shares the responsibility of community awareness prevention and safety practices. In such we focus on involving ourselves with every type of function, activity or programs which is required of us to solidify and justify the purpose of our existence.
- We shall continue to contribute to the improvement of the quality of life in our community by providing understanding, compassionate and effective security services.

DIVERSITY STATEMENT

The COM-FSM, Campus Security and Safety Office, recognizes that diversity, the differences between people and cultures, exists here within the community.

Our effort to interact and understand the differences between different cultures is considered a challenge but a task that needs accomplishing. In every effort, while familiarizing ourselves with other cultures we also work towards introducing our culture and ways of living.

Our recognition to diversity has given the Campus Security and Safety Office an opportunity to understand and improve interaction with the students, faculty, staff and visitors.

Services Provided-The Campus Security and Safety Office is responsible for ensuring compliance with national, state and local laws, as well as the policies and regulations of the College of Micronesia-FSM. The officers patrol on foot and perform security services, such as responding to and reporting on incident reports, investigations, medical and fire suppression, enforcement of laws regulating the use of alcohol, drugs and weapons.

Campus Security and Safety officers do not possess police powers, but are able to make arrests within the jurisdiction of the institution and referred to the local law enforcement agencies. Investigations relating to this institution are conducted in a joint effort with the local law enforcement agencies and a selected qualified officer from this office.

Collaborative Law Enforcement Relationship -Though the COM-FSM Campus Security and Safety does not have an MOU with the local law enforcement agencies, the COM-FSM Campus Security and Safety maintains a well established and continuous working relationship in enforcing local laws on campus. All criminal incidents on campus are referred to the local law enforcement agency with jurisdiction authority. Investigations relating to this institution are conducted in a joint effort with the local law enforcement agencies and a selected qualified officer from this office.

STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES

Timely Warnings SOP: In the event that there is a report containing information which identifies an ongoing threat to the safety of the college community, a message is sent in a timely manner via mass e-mail and by posting fliers throughout the community. Additionally, a designated representative from the Campus Security will visit affected areas on campus and provide additional information to members of the community.

Immediate Notification SOP: In the event that there is a report containing information which identifies an immediate threat to the safety of the college community, the Campus Security and Safety will first respond and investigate. Upon confirming the urgency of the situation, the Campus Security and Safety will immediately notify the Office of the Vice President of Administration and the Office of the Director of Community Relations which will be responsible per standard operating procedures as offices responsible for disseminating such information to the college community or the segment of the campus affected.

Note: In the event a need for implementing the “Timely Warning or “Immediate Notification” procedures, COM-FSM will utilize the following communication methods to convey messages in a timely manner according to the nature of the threat.

1. Mass E-mails
2. Megaphones
3. Public Address System

Emergency Evacuation SOP: Guidelines for emergency response are outlined in the College of Micronesia-FSM's Disaster Plan. The COM-FSMDP outlines processes, procedures and collaborative measures to maximize awareness, prevention and preparedness, and minimize reaction/response, recovery, and mitigation efforts in handling a COM-FSM crisis situation.

In any crisis or disaster, the College of Micronesia-FSM's main mission is to:

1. Protect Human Life
2. Stabilize the incident
3. Preserve Property
4. Recover to resume to normal operations

Missing Student Notification SOP: If a member of the College community has reason to believe that a student who resides in on-campus housing is missing, he or she should immediately notify Campus Security and Safety at 320-7017.

The Office of Campus Security and Safety will then generate a missing person report and initiate an investigation.

In addition to registering a general emergency contact, students residing in on-campus housing have the option to identify confidentially an individual to be contacted by COM-FSM in the event the student is determined to be missing for more than 24 hours. If a student has identified such an individual, COM-FSM will notify that individual no later than 24 hours after the student is determined to be missing. A student's confidential contact information will be accessible only by authorized campus officials and law enforcement in the course of the investigation.

After investigating a missing person report, should Campus Security and Safety determine that the student has been missing for 24 hours, COM-FSM will notify local law enforcement agencies and the student's emergency contact no later than 24 hours after the student is determined to be missing. If the missing student is under the age of 18 and is not an emancipated individual, COM-FSM will notify the student's parent or legal guardian immediately after Campus Security and Safety has determined that the student has been missing for 24 hours.

POLICIES

Alcohol Policy

The purchase, possession, or consumption of alcohol beverages is regulated by national and state law. Under national or state law, no one under the age of 21 may purchase, sell, possess or consume alcoholic beverages. In addition, alcohol is prohibited on COM-FSM campuses, at COM-FSM approved or sponsored events, on COM-FSM properties, or in the buildings, vehicles or boats used by COM-FSM for its educational or recreational programs. Students, employees and others found in violation of this policy are subject to criminal prosecution and/or college disciplinary procedures.

Illegal Drugs Policy

As prohibited by national and state law, COM-FSM students, employees and others are not permitted to be under the influence of, possess, manufacture, distribute or sell illicit drugs on COM-FSM property, or at any COM-FSM sponsored or approved events, in COM-FSM buildings, vehicles, and boats used for educational or recreational programs. Conviction may result in prosecution and/or college disciplinary procedures.

Policy on Banned Weapons

Possession of banned weapons is prohibited on any COM-FSM campus, at any COM-FSM approved or sponsored event, on any COM-FSM property, or in the buildings, vehicles and boats used by COM-FSM for its educational or recreational programs. Any violation of this policy may result in prosecution and/or college disciplinary action.

Policies on Prohibition of Violence

It is the goal and policy of the College of Micronesia-FSM to have zero tolerance for violence on campus, at college events, and during college related activities. This policy will apply on all COM-FSM properties, in the buildings, vehicles or boats used by COM-FSM, for its educational or recreational programs or in actions taken against students where ever the act of violence may take place.

Acts of Violence

A person who threatens, harasses or (intentionally or unintentionally) creates an abusive or hostile environment; and/or when a person strikes, beats, wounds or otherwise does any kind of bodily harm to another; and/or when a person perpetrates a sexual act without consent; and/or when a person destroys or damages the personal property of another.

INFORMATION FOR VICTIMS OF SEXUAL ASSAULT

When a sexual offense occurs, the victim has the right to anonymity when making a report. He/she has the option of notifying proper law enforcement authorities both on campus (Campus Security and Safety) and off campus (Police). Preserving evidence for the proof of a criminal offense is important. The appropriate on-campus support personnel which may include the Campus Dispensary Nurse, the Vice-President for Support/Student Affairs, the Vice President of Administration, and the Counselor Office. The contact numbers are listed on page (4) of this brochure.

Note: Any member of the COM-FSM community who commits a sexual offense is subject to criminal prosecution and/or college disciplinary procedures.

REPORTING CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES AND EMERGENCIES

Students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to report all suspicious activities and/or persons observed on campus, all criminal incidents and violations, and all emergencies to the Campus Security and Safety Office.

Reports should be made promptly to improve Campus Security and Local Law Enforcement Agency's response abilities to prevent crimes, apprehend suspects, and/or to investigate incidents. Upon receiving a call, the Campus Security Officer will respond immediately to the scene of the incident. Every incident will be investigated, and filed upon receipt of a complaint.

Any person making a report or complaint may reserve the right to anonymity and will remain confidential. This right may be waived upon the request of the reporter.

ACCESS TO FACILITIES

College of Micronesia-FSM facilities are open to students, faculty, staff and the public during normal working hours. Certain components, such as the Multi-Purpose Gym and Learning Resource Center are normally open after hours for the convenience of the students, faculty, staff and the public. Gate entrances are locked and secured at 21:30hrs. During the times that COM-FSM is officially closed, buildings are locked and regularly checked by the officers on patrol.

CRIME PREVENTION

Facilities and Grounds Surveys

All potential security and safety hazards observed by Campus Security Officers on patrol are promptly reported to the Maintenance Division for corrective action. A designated Safety Officer is assigned to all safety features on campus.

Informational/Educational Programs

The Counselors, Campus Nurse, Peer to Peer office of COM-FSM, provide information and activities relating to sexual assault, violence, suicide, alcohol, drugs, family planning, etc. New students and community members are provided with information relating to criminal statistics and what type of safety precautions to take to ensure their own personal safety and the safety of other members of the community during orientation week.

CRIME PREVENTION TIPS

- Avoid Isolated and dark areas
- Know your limits with alcohol and do not accept drinks from others
- Tell a friend where you're going and when you will return
- Do not frequent areas not familiar to you
- Be aware of your surroundings
- Body language counts! Walk with confidence. Show that you are aware and confident.
- Always use the buddy system when new to the area.
- Report any suspicious persons or activities; report all incidents no matter how minor; report losses immediately.
- Never loan keys to anyone as they are easily lost, stolen or duplicated. Report immediately if you have lost your keys.
- Be sure to lock/secure windows and doors in your office or room; lock your vehicles, store valuables out of view.
- Mark or engrave your belongings; don't leave belongings/valuables unattended.
- Do not leave textbooks, purses, or backpacks, flash drives, or any valuables, unattended.
- If you work alone after normal working hours, ensure that all doors and windows are locked/secure before doing any work.
- If you have appliances such as microwaves, coffeemakers, rice cookers, hotplates, make sure they are unplugged before leaving the office or your room.
- Report defective locks, lighting, phone.

FIRE SAFETY REPORT

The Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008 requires that all Title IV institutions with residence halls provide an "Annual Fire Safety Report", disclosing fire safety practices, standards, and fire incident statistics. The following information relates to the on-campus residence halls of the College of Micronesia-FSM

COM-FSM residence halls are equipped with portable fire extinguishers, fire hose cabinets and visual/audible fire alarm systems. Standard and stand-up type fire hydrants are strategically installed at the exterior of the residence halls.

All fire saving equipments are collaboratively inspected, tested and maintained on a regular basis by a designated Safety Officer and representative from the Maintenance Division.

Fire Drills are conducted by the Campus Security and dorm advisors in a joint effort once each semester. Residents are provided awareness and prevention information during orientations, and before and after fire drills.

COM-FSM Security officers are trained in evacuation and equipped only to respond to evacuation measures and suppress fires until the appropriate Emergency/Fire Authorities arrive on the scene of the incident.

Fire Logs disclosing fire statistics updated on a daily basis, and available for public inspection upon request, during normal working hours.

Fire Safety Standard of Procedures

Fire Safety Evacuation Procedures

In the event of a FIRE, residents should proceed in the following manner:

- If the doorknob or door to your room is hot to the touch, do not open the door. Remain in your room until help arrives.
- If help does not arrive, the fire exit windows in the rooms are constructed to disintegrate upon impact. You may use this exit as a last resort by shattering the fire exit window and exiting out onto the ledge of the building (for those living on the second floor) and proceed to the nearest and safest fire steps located at both ends of the residence halls.
- Immediately notify the Dorm Advisor or Resident Assistant closest to the area of the fire
- Pull the nearest fire alarm pulling station and announce in a loud clear voice "FIRE" to alert other dorm residents.
- Immediately Evacuate the building(s) without delay
- When the alarm is activated, all residents except those with specific duties during such a crisis must leave the building/facility IMMEDIATELY through the nearest exit.
- Where possible close all doors and windows
- Do not under any circumstances return to the building for any reasons unless instructed by a competent authority.
- Move away from the entrances/exits and access for responding authorities.
- Do not obstruct Fire Hydrants

Fire Alarm Activation

Residents are expected to evacuate the building immediately upon the activation of a fire alarm or when directed to do so. Failure to promptly obey the direction of any College Residential Hall or Campus Security staff or Civil Official during an emergency will be referred to an appropriate college official in charge of implementing disciplinary actions.

False alarms or tampering with fire alarms or fire safety equipment is prohibited. Due to possible serious injury or loss of death, violators will be disciplined accordingly or turned over to the proper law enforcement authority.

Resident Hall Rules and Regulations

Smoking is prohibited in all buildings owned and operated by the College of Micronesia-FSM, including dormitories.

All electrical portable appliances or anything which produces heat or open flames is prohibited for use in the dorms.

- Hot plates
- Ovens
- Microwaves
- Toasters
- Gas(propane)/Kerosene Stoves
- Barbecue Grills
- Candles
- Mosquito Coils
